This report is intended as a resource guide for individuals seeking to identify the major source of appropriations for selected federal agencies and programs. The report was generated using materials published by the House and Senate Appropriations Committees. Please note that the report is not a definitive or comprehensive listing of all federal agencies, programs, projects, or activities that appear in annual appropriations measures from year to year.

Table 1 pairs selected federal agencies or programs in the first column with appropriations bills that are their major source of appropriated funds in the second column. The Appendix provides a listing of House and Senate Appropriations subcommittees.¹
