SECTION 1: GENERAL ISSUANCE INFORMATION

APPLICABILITY.

This issuance applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands (CCMDs), the Office of Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (referred to collectively in this issuance as the “DoD Components”).

SECTION 2: RESPONSIBILITIES AND FUNCTIONS

The ASD(SO/LIC) is the PSA and principal civilian advisor to the Secretary of Defense for special operations (SO), low-intensity conflict (LIC), and SO-peculiar administrative matters and, after the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of Defense, is the principal DoD official for these matters. The ASD(SO/LIC) supervises SO activities consistent with Sections 138 and 167 of Title 10, U.S.C., and oversees LIC and irregular warfare (IW) activities of the DoD. As appropriate, the ASD(SO/LIC), in their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (USD(P)) on those issues, policies, and activities identified in Sections 138 and 167 of Title 10, U.S.C., and in other applicable laws and policies, and as described in this issuance. In the exercise of assigned responsibilities, the ASD(SO/LIC):

a. Policy Oversight.

(1) In their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists the USD(P):

(a) In developing overall policy pertaining to SO, LIC, and IW and ensuring that the DoD maintains related capabilities and capacity.

(b) On policy recommendations and guidance to incorporate SO, LIC, and IW mission options in steady-state and contingency planning; reviews contributions to, and evaluates the support of, such plans.

(c) On interagency support requests for utilization of DoD forces or resources in SO, LIC, and IW and monitors interagency use of DoD forces or resources in such activities in consultation with the Office of General Counsel of the Department of Defense and in accordance with DoD Directive (DoDD) S-5210.36, when applicable.

(d) Oversee the promulgation and periodic review of regulations for the USSOCOM activities and review, in coordination with the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the CDRUSSOCOM, the procedures by which the CDRUSSOCOM receives, plans, and executes taskings of the President or the Secretary of Defense.

(2) Implements policy established by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense and issues guidance and direction in regard to special operations forces (SOF)-related readiness.

(a) Oversees, in coordination with the CDRUSSOCOM, the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)), and the Military Departments, the readiness of forces and individuals assigned to United States Special Operations Command (USSOCOM).

(b) Evaluates and advises on the readiness of SOF to conduct SO for steady-state and contingency plans in coordination with the CJCS. Initiates, reviews, and coordinates with the USD(P&R), CJCS, CDRUSSOCOM, and the Secretaries of the Military Departments on changes in readiness policies that may impact SOF.

(3) Under the direction of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs and the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller)/Chief Financial Officer, Department of Defense (USD(C)/CFO), directs and controls legislative matters and congressional liaison activities for all

SO activities and programs except for those legislative affairs activities that require direct engagement with Congress as part of the CDRUSSOCOM's operational role as a Combatant Commander (CCDR), in accordance with DoDDs 5142.01 and 5118.03, and the January 14, 2020, Secretary of Defense Memorandum.

(a) Maintains awareness of CDRUSSOCOM's participation in the DoD legislative process in their role as a CCDR.

(b) Coordinates with CDRUSSOCOM on legislative matters and conducts engagements with Congress jointly with CDRUSSOCOM, when appropriate.

(4) In coordination with the CDRUSSOCOM, provides oversight of the readiness of the theater SO commands to conduct IW and SO and LIC activities. Coordinates with the Joint Staff, USSOCOM, the geographic CCMDs, and the Military Departments, as necessary, to identify and mitigate readiness issues related to the theater SO commands.

(5) Coordinates with the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence and Security (USD(I&S)) on intelligence policies for IW and SO and LIC activities. Coordinates for intelligence support to IW and SO and LIC activities and identifies risks associated with any potential intelligence support shortfalls.

(6) Promotes understanding of IW, and SO and LIC activities within the DoD, other Federal agencies, Congress, the public, and foreign officials.

(7) Conducts independent and collaborative studies, analyses, and examinations that support the exercise of assigned responsibilities and functions.

(8) Oversees the issuance and periodic review of regulations for USSOCOM and SO activities, in coordination with other OSD PSAs, the Joint Staff, USSOCOM staff, and other DoD Components as applicable.

(9) Co-Chairs the Irregular Warfare – Security Force Assistance Executive Steering Committee, providing overall oversight to ensure DoD maintains capabilities and capacity in IW, in accordance with DoDD 3000.07.

b. Resources and Administrative Oversight.

The ASD(SO/LIC) is in the USSOCOM administrative chain of command. This chain of command runs from the Secretary of Defense to the ASD(SO/LIC), and from the ASD(SO/LIC) to the CDRUSSOCOM. The ASD(SO/LIC):

(1) Exercises authority, direction, and control of all SO-peculiar administrative matters relating to the organization, readiness, training, resourcing, and equipping of SO forces.

(2) Performs a budgetary role and responsibility similar to those of the Secretaries of the Military Departments, and receives topline guidance and leads the development and justification of the SOF Major Force Program-11 Program Objective Memorandum and Budget Estimate

Submission; and provides input to the President's Budget. The ASD(SO/LIC) will issue programming guidance and fiscal guidance to USSOCOM.

(3) Provides overall supervision of the preparation and justification of SO programs and budget for Major Force Program-11; approves the USSOCOM program objective memoranda and budget before submission to the Director of Cost Assessment and Program Evaluation (DCAPE) and the USD(C)/CFO; and advocates for program objective memoranda and budgets to Congress, in coordination with the CDRUSSOCOM.

(4) Reviews, analyzes, and evaluates the various OSD PSA and DoD Component policies, processes, and programs that impact DoD's capability to:

(a) Oversee planning, resourcing, training, and equipping of SO forces for IW, and to execute SO and LIC activities and operations. Advocates with the Military Services to plan, resource, train, and equip non-SO forces for IW and LIC missions as required.

(b) Initiate and coordinate actions that enhance the readiness, capabilities, and effective use of SOF.

(5) Advises and coordinates with the USD(I&S) on priorities and requirements for SO intelligence and intelligence-related material, equipment, and resources.

(6) Advises and coordinates with the DCAPE on program issues that impact SO activities.

(7) Advises and coordinates with the USD(C)/CFO on budget issues that impact SOF activities.

(8) Advises the Secretary of Defense on assigning SO, Reserve, and other forces to USSOCOM.

(9) Advises and coordinates with the USD(P&R) and the Secretaries of the Military Departments on matters in the following categories that affect USSOCOM and SO forces, including, but not limited to:

(a) Readiness.

(b) Total Force management.

(c) Reserve and National Guard affairs.

(d) Health affairs (including, but not limited to, psychological and physical health issues) and wounded warrior care.

(e) Military and civilian personnel requirements, including, but not limited to:

1. Recruiting, accessions, retention, and promotions.

2. Professional military education.

(b) This authority is not further delegable. This does not include authority to approve a transfer of forces to or from the operational control of the CDRUSSOCOM or another CCMD.

c. Sensitive Special Operations.

(1) In their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists the USD(P) and coordinates with the USD(I&S) to:

(a) Develop policy for the planning of, seeking approval to conduct, and permissible and prohibited activities when conducting sensitive special operations, including policies for execution, management, reporting, and resources.

(b) Review all sensitive special operations proposals and conduct an independent evaluation of the policy and administrative-related risks and gains of each.

(c) Monitor execution of sensitive special operations and keep Executive and Legislative Branches leadership appropriately informed on sensitive special operations matters.

(2) Develop, coordinate, and oversee the implementation of policy for nonconventional assisted recovery activities.

(3) Conduct oversight of sensitive special operations.

d. Operational Preparation of the Environment (OPE).

In their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists the USD(P), in coordination with the USD(I&S), to:

(1) Develop policy, coordinate with interagency and international partners, and monitor planning and resourcing for DoD Components to conduct OPE.

(2) Oversee SO and LIC OPE activities.

e. Crisis Response.

In their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists the USD(P) to:

(1) Establish and maintain an interactive process with other OSD PSAs and the DoD Components, other U.S. Government departments and agencies, and other bodies to promote early identification of potential problems and initiate planning guidance.

(2) Monitor the development of crises and, as appropriate:

(a) Recommend options for actions utilizing SOF capabilities and authorities.

(b) Monitor SO actions during planning and execution.

(3) In coordination with other senior DoD officials, as appropriate, notify the Secretary of Defense when there are significant changes in the relationship between SO actions, targets, level of force and risk, and the policy objectives to be achieved.

f. Direct Action.

Coordinates with the USD(P) to oversee planning and resourcing of capabilities for SO forces to conduct direct action, and monitors SO actions during planning and execution.

g. Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD).

(1) In coordination with the USD(P):

(a) In their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists with the development and oversight of policy, plans, programs, and budgets, and issues guidance and provides direction on DoD EOD activities.

(b) Coordinates and provides advice to senior DoD officials regarding the use of U.S. Government resources for EOD, in accordance with DoDDs 5160.62 and 3025.13.

(c) In their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists the USD(P) with the development, coordination, and oversight of policy on all matters pertaining to the roles, missions, capabilities, and employment of EOD. Reviews and evaluates policies, processes, and programs of DoD Components that affect the capability to plan, resource, prepare forces for, and execute EOD activities, in accordance with DoDDs 5160.62 and 3025.13.

(d) Serves as principal staff advisor to the USD(P) and the Secretary of Defense for EOD. In this capacity, the ASD(SO/LIC) will execute these functions, in accordance with DoDD 5160.62.

(e) Coordinates with the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Homeland Defense and Global Security (ASD(HD&GS)) on EOD in defense support of civil authorities, in accordance with DoDDs 5160.62 and 3025.13.

(2) Coordinates with the USD(I&S) on explosive ordnance technical intelligence.

(3) Coordinates with the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition and Sustainment (USD(A&S)) on EOD research, development, acquisition, and sustainment; and with the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Nuclear, Chemical, and Biological Defense programs on EOD for combating weapons of mass destruction.

(4) Coordinates with the Under Secretary of Defense for Research and Engineering (USD(R&E)) on EOD research, development, test, and evaluation.

(5) Coordinates with the Secretary of the Navy as the DoD Executive Agent for EOD Technology and Training, as designated in the June 2, 2020, Secretary of Defense Memorandum, on oversight of the training and technology program that coordinates and integrates:

(a) Joint requirements for EOD.

(b) Common individual training.

(c) Joint research, development, test, and evaluation activities for common tools for the Military Departments with respect to EOD.

h. IW.

(1) In their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists the USD(P) to:

(a) Develop and oversee policies for IW as it pertains to DoD IW-related activities either independently or in support of other U.S. Government departments and agencies, foreign security partners, or other select organizations, in accordance with DoDD 3000.07.

(b) Lead DoD efforts to establish and sustain processes and authorities to assess and analyze the viability of unconventional warfare as a strategic policy option, and incorporate relevant concepts into strategic planning documents.

(c) Develop policy in coordination with other U.S. Government departments and agencies, and provide advice to senior DoD officials regarding the use of U.S. Government resources in stabilization, in accordance with DoDD 3000.05.

(d) Develop policy and provide advice and guidance to senior DoD officials regarding the use of U.S. Government resources to conduct foreign internal defense as a strategic policy option, and incorporate relevant concepts into strategic planning documents to defend against and impose costs on malign internal security threats.

(e) Develop, coordinate, and oversee implementation of counterterrorism policy consistent with national strategies and DoD policy and objectives.

(2) In their role as a PSA to the Secretary of Defense, assists the USD(P) and, in coordination with the USD(I&S):

(a) Develops policy and provides advice to senior DoD officials regarding the use of U.S. Government resources in counterinsurgency.

(b) Develops policy in coordination with other U.S. Government departments and agencies, and provides advice to senior DoD officials regarding the use of U.S. Government resources in counterterrorism consistent with national strategies, DoD policy, and objectives.

(3) In coordination with the CJCS, the Secretaries of the Military Departments, the OSD PSAs (as applicable), and the CCDRs, determines the optimal organizational structure and decision processes for the DoD to ensure the uninterrupted oversight, management, direction, and accountability over the development and maintenance of required forces and capabilities to conduct or support IW missions.

(6) Is designated as a member of senior leadership fora and other DoD governance bodies for matters within ASD(SO/LIC) areas of responsibilities.

(7) Performs such other duties as the Secretary of Defense may prescribe.

SECTION 3: RELATIONSHIPS

3.1. ASD(SO/LIC).

In performing their assigned responsibilities and functions, the ASD(SO/LIC):

- a. Reports directly to the Secretary of Defense, consistent with his/her duties as a PSA for the purposes of executing 10 U.S.C 167(f) administrative chain of command duties. Reports to the USD(P) for matters of policy and consistent with the duties identified in this issuance.
- b. Exercises authority, direction, and control over such positions and organizations as may be established by the ASD(SO/LIC), consistent with applicable law, using resources provided by the Secretary of Defense.
- c. Coordinates and exchanges information with other OSD officials, the DoD Component heads, and Federal, State, or local officials having collateral or related functions.
- d. Insofar as the exercise of ASD(SO/LIC) responsibilities and functions described in Section 2 of this issuance impacts on, or is conducted in, specific geographic regions of the world, exercises those responsibilities and functions in cooperation with the Assistant Secretary of Defense that is assigned responsibility for overall U.S. Defense policy in that region.
- e. Carries out assigned duties to the extent that nothing in this directive will be interpreted to interpose the ASD(SO/LIC) in the operational chain of command prescribed by Section 162 of Title 10, U.S.C., or to subsume and replace the functions and responsibilities of the CJCS and the CCDRs prescribed by law or DoD policy.
- f. Unless otherwise directed by the President, carries out assigned duties wherein the administrative chain of command to the USSOCOM runs from the President, to the Secretary of Defense, to the ASD(SO/LIC), to the CDRUSSOCOM.
- g. Communicates directly with the CDRUSSOCOM on matters identified in this directive. These communications do not need to be transmitted through the CJCS, but the ASD(SO/LIC) will inform the CJCS, as appropriate.

3.2. OSD PSAS AND DOD COMPONENT HEADS.

The other OSD PSAs and DoD Component heads coordinate with the ASD(SO/LIC) on matters under their purview related to the authorities, responsibilities, and functions assigned to the ASD(SO/LIC) in this issuance.

3.3. CJCS.

The CJCS will include the ASD(SO/LIC) on all communications to the Secretaries of the Military Departments or CDRUSSOCOM related to SO organization, training, equipping, readiness, capability requirements, global force management, and personnel matters.

3.4. CDRUSSOCOM.

In addition to Paragraph 3.2, the CDRUSSOCOM:

a. Is subject to the authority, direction, and control of the ASD(SO/LIC) for matters related to the authorities, responsibilities, functions, and activities identified in Sections 138 and 167 of Title 10 U.S.C., and those assigned to the ASD(SO/LIC) in this issuance.

b. Coordinates with the ASD(SO/LIC) on all SO matters described in Paragraph 3.4.a.

c. Transmits all communications to the Secretary of Defense, Deputy Secretary of Defense, USD(P), USD(I&S), USD(P&R), USD(C)/CFO, DCAPE, and Assistant Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs related to SO organization, training, equipping, readiness, resourcing, budget, legislative affairs, posture, global force management, and personnel matters through the ASD(SO/LIC).

d. Will include the ASD(SO/LIC) on all communications to the Secretaries of the Military Departments or to the CJCS related to SO organization, training, equipping, readiness, capability requirements, global force management, and personnel matters.

SECTION 4: AUTHORITIES

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Defense, and subject to their authority, direction, and control, and in accordance with DoD policies and issuances, the ASD(SO/LIC) is hereby delegated authority to exercise, within assigned responsibilities and functions, all authority of the Secretary of Defense derived from statute, Executive order (E.O.), or interagency agreement, except where specifically limited by statute or E.O. to the Secretary of Defense. The ASD(SO/LIC) is specifically delegated authority to:

a. Establish DoD policy regarding those matters identified in 10 U.S.C. 167(f) and for which the ASD(SO/LIC) is designated a PSA, through DoDIs, directive-type memorandums (DTMs), and rules published in the Federal Register, within the authorities and responsibilities assigned in this issuance and in accordance with DoDI 5025.01 or Administrative Instruction (AI) 102.

(1) In those documents, assign responsibilities related to the authorities and responsibilities in this issuance to other OSD PSAs and the DoD Component heads. Assignment of responsibilities in DoD issuances or rules published in the Federal Register to Military Department officials must be made through the Secretaries of those Departments. DoD issuances or rules published in the Federal Register assigning responsibilities to the CCMDs must be coordinated with the CJCS.

(2) DoDIs and DTMs must be fully coordinated, in accordance with DoDI 5025.01. Rules published in the Federal Register must be fully coordinated with impacted OSD and DoD Component heads and be consistent with AI 102.

(3) This authority may not be redelegated.

b. Approve other DoDIs, DoD manuals (DoDMs), and DTMs in areas of assigned responsibilities and functions that implement policy already established by a DoDD, DoDI, DTM, or policy memorandum issued by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense.

(1) In these documents, assign responsibilities related to the authorities and responsibilities in this issuance to other OSD PSAs and the DoD Component heads. Assignment of responsibilities in these DoD issuances to Military Department officials must be made through the Secretaries of those Departments. DoD issuances assigning responsibilities to the CCMDs must be coordinated with the CJCS.

(2) Such documents must be fully coordinated in accordance with DoDI 5025.01.

(3) This authority may only be further delegated to subordinate officials as specified in DoDI 5025.01.

c. Approve Federal Register publication of significant guidance documents as defined in E.O. 13891 and determined by the Office of Management and Budget. This authority may not be redelegated.

d. Approve the Federal Register publication of documents other than rules and significant guidance documents, (e.g., notices, orders, and non-significant guidance documents as defined by E.O. 13891 and determined by the Office of Management and Budget) in accordance with AI 102. Unless otherwise restricted by law, this authority may be further delegated only in writing to subordinate officials at or above the level of a general or flag officer, Senior Executive Service member, or equivalent.

e. Communicate directly with the DoD Component heads, as necessary, to carry out assigned responsibilities and functions, including transmitting requests for advice and assistance. Communications to Military Department officials must be transmitted through the Secretaries of the Military Departments or as otherwise provided in law or directed by the Secretary of Defense in other DoD issuances. Communications to the CCDRs must be in accordance with DoDD 5100.01.

f. Communicate with other U.S. Government officials, members of the public, and representatives of foreign governments, as appropriate, in carrying out assigned responsibilities and functions. Communications with representatives and members of the Legislative Branch must be conducted through the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs, except for communications with the Defense Appropriations Committees, which must be coordinated with the Office of the USD(C)/CFO.

g. In addition to the requirements of Paragraph 2.t. on specific SAP matters, communicate with agencies of the Executive Branch and Congress on SO SAPs. For all SO SAP matters, the ASD(SO/LIC) must conduct communications with agencies of the Executive Branch and Congress, consistent with DoDD 5205.07 and any other applicable DoD issuances.

h. Obtain reports and information, in accordance with DoDI 8910.01, as necessary, to carry out assigned responsibilities and functions.

i. Establish arrangements for DoD participation in non-DoD governmental programs for which the ASD(SO/LIC) is assigned primary DoD cognizance, in accordance with DoDD S-5210.36 and any other applicable DoD issuances.

j. Enter into support agreements, as required, for the effective performance of responsibilities and functions assigned to the ASD(SO/LIC), in accordance with DoDI 4000.19, the February 13, 2020, Deputy Secretary of Defense Memorandum, and any other applicable DoD issuances.

k. Implement an information security program, in accordance with E.O. 13526, DoDI 5200.01, and DoDM 5200.01 Volumes 1-3, and exercise original classification authority up to Top Secret, and issue appropriate security classification guidance, in accordance with DoDM 5200.45 and Volume 1 of DoDM 5200.01.
