I have determined, pursuant to section 142a of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, that the following information can be published without undue risk to the common defense and security and that this information shall be declassified and removed from the category of Restricted Data:

"That the People's Republic of China obtained some Restricted Data information on the W88 warhead, and perhaps the complete W88 design."

Michael A. Kilpatrick
Deputy Director
Office of Security and Safety
Performance Assurance